

Page numbers in boldface type denote illustrations. Maps are indicated by the word map in italics after the page number. The abbreviation JA refers to John Adams.

Acts of Trade, 97

Adams, Abigail “Nabby” (daughter of JA), 74, 114, 116–117

Adams, Abigail Smith (wife of JA)

births of sons, 46, 49

move to Boston, 46

return to Braintree, 46–47, 55

on tea imports, 52

political involvement of, 64–65

family life, 73–74

birth of daughter, 86

on rioting, 86

locket belonging to, 88–89 travels to England, 114

on JA’s portrait, 114–116

in Paris, 116–117

on JA’s behavior, 117–118

letters to JA

on JA’s absence, 58, 76, 87, 92, 108 on political tensions, 60, 64–65 request for supplies, 65

on Battle of Bunker Hill, 67–68

on Lee, 68

on Washington, 68

during illness, 74

on women’s liberation, 76–77

on cannon fire, 78

Adams, Charles (son of JA) birth, 46

education, 74

during epidemic, 92

travel to France, 93

at French boarding school, 100

in Holland, 102

return to Braintree, 104

Adams, Charles Francis (grandson of JA), 116

Adams, Elihu (brother of JA), 74

Adams, John

CAREER

as General Court representative, 46

law practice, 46, 48

in Boston, 49

reaction to Boston Tea Party, 52–53 appointment to congressional delegation, 54 at First Continental Congress, 55–60 election to Provincial Congress, 60–61

in Lexington, 61 at Second Continental Congress, 61, 64 nomination of Washington, 67 on congressional committees, 73 resolution for independence, 78–79, 83

Declaration of Independence, 79–81, 83

meeting with Admiral Howe, 84–85 on Board of War and Ordnance, 86

as joint commissioner to France, 87 in Passy, France, 89, 91

recommendations to Congress, 90

Adams, John

CAREER (continued)

return to Boston, 92–93

Massachusetts state constitution, 93

as minister plenipotentiary to Great Britain, 93 return to France, 93

diplomatic difficulties, 100 negotiations with France, 100 and Benjamin Franklin, 102

in Holland, 102–105

as peace commissioner to France, 104

as minister plenipotentiary to Holland, 105 treaty negotiations in Paris, 109–113 loan from Holland, 114

trade negotiations in Paris, 116

as American minister to Great Britain, 117–118

OPINIONS

on Hancock, 46, 67

on political life, 49, 55

on judges’ salaries, 49–50

on Boston Tea Party, 52–53

on New York, 57

on Boston, 60

on Philadelphia, 60

on Dickinson, 72, 73, 80

on women’s liberation, 77

on resolution for independence, 79

on Franklin, 98–99

on diplomatic abilities, 100 on European lifestyle, 101 on fishing rights, 109–110

on ties to England, 118

PERSONAL DATA

social class of, 42

births of sons, 46, 49

health of, 46, 104, 113

family life, 46–47

return to Braintree, 46–48

Stafford Springs visit, 48

move to Boston, 49

birth of daughter, 86

financial stresses of, 87

travel to France, 87–89

discomfort with European lifestyle, 90, 95 travel to England with son, 113 reunion with Abigail and Nabby, 114, 116 physical appearance of, 116

temperament of, 116

PORTRAITS OF, 80–81, 106–107, 114–115

WRITINGS

letters to Mercy Otis Warren, 42

Boston Gazette articles, 49–50 letters to James Warren, 55, 65, 72, 79

NOVANGLUS articles, 61, 64

letters to Abigail Adams, 73, 74, 77, 79, 114

Thoughts on Government, 75 on Declaration of Independence, 79–80 articles in French press, 100

letters to Arthur Lee, 101

letters to Congress, 101

Peace Journal, 110, 112, 117

- Adams, John Quincy (son of JA) birthplace, 47
 education, 48, 74, 104
 on Battle of Bunker Hill, 68
 travel to France, 87–89, 92, 93 drawings by, 88–89
 portraits of, 88–89
 return to Boston, 92–93
 at French boarding school, 100
 in Holland, 102, 113–114
 travel to Russia, 104
 in England, 113
- Adams, Samuel, 54, 55, 57–58, 67, 90
- Adams, Thomas Boylston (son of JA), 49, 74
- Adams' Birthplaces* (Frankenstein), 47
- Administration of Justice Act, 53
- Allen, Ethan, 64
- American Commissioners at the Preliminary Peace Negotiations with Great Britain* (West), 110–111
- Arnold, Benedict, 64, 94–95
- Articles of Association, 57–58
- Attack on Bunker's Hill with the Burning of Charles Town* (artist unknown), 68, 70–71
- Bache, Benjamin, 92
- Baltimore, 86
- Battle of Bennington, 94–95
- Battle of Bunker Hill, 68–69 map, 70–71
- Battle of Lexington, The* (Doolittle), 62
- Battle of Yorktown, 104–105
- Battles of Lexington and Concord, 61, 62–63
- Beaumarchais, Pierre August Caron de, 95
- Beaver*, 52
- Bemis Heights, 94
- Bennington, 94–95
- Besoet, Ivan, 106
- Bills of credit, 86
- Board of War and Ordnance, 86
- Boston, 52
- Boston*, 87–89
- Boston, Massachusetts political climate, 41
 cost of living, 45
 celebration for Queen, 46
 Boston Tea Party, 50–51, 52–54
 JA's opinion of, 60 rebellion in, 61, 64
 Battle of Bunker Hill, 68–69 map
 Battle of Dorchester Neck, 78
- Boston Gazette*, 49–50, 61
- Bostonians Paying the Excise-Man, The* (Dawe), 50–51
- Boston News Letter*, 49, 73
- Boston Port Act, 53–54
- Boston Tea Party, 50–51, 52–54
- Bowdoin, James, 54
- Boylston, Thomas, 86
- Braintree, Massachusetts, 46–48, 47, 58, 64–65, 92
- Brattle, William, 49
- Braxton, Carter, 80
- Breed's Hill, 60, 68–69 map
- British Acts of Trade, 97
- British Army
 presence in America, 53–54 dissolution General Court, 54 Battles of Lexington and Concord, 61, 62–63
 in Boston, 64
 Battle of Bunker Hill, 68, 70–71
 evacuation from Boston, 78 lack of enthusiasm, 85 strategy of, 93–94
 surrender to Gates, 95 surrender at Yorktown, 104–105
- British East India Company, 50, 52
- Bunker Hill, Battle of, 68–69 map, 70–71
- Burgoyne, John, 94, 95, 97
- Burke, Edmund, 55, 64
- Butler, John, 85
- Campbell, Patrick, 59
- Catherine II, 97
- Charleston, Massachusetts, 68, 70–71
- Charleston, South Carolina, 46, 52
- Cicero*, 104
- Classes of society, 41–45
- Coercive Acts, 53–54, 61, 74, 97
- Committees of correspondence, 50
- Commoners, 42, 45
- Common Sense* (Paine), 42, 75
- Comte Vergennes, The* (artist unknown), 96
- Conanicut Ferry, 73
- Concord, Massachusetts, 61, 62–63
- Condorcet, Nicolas de, 95
- Congress
 First Continental Congress, 55–61
 Second Continental Congress debate over independence, 61, 64 conflict within, 65–67, 68 Declaration of the Causes and Necessity of Taking up Arms, 68, 72 division of opinions, 73, 74–75 Lee's resolution, 78–79
 Declaration of Independence, 79–81
 military funding, 85, 86 flight from British Army, 86 American Commission in France, 90 negotiations with Dutch, 102
- Congress of the Confederation peace commissioners to France, 104 as influenced by Vergennes, 112
- Congress Voting Independence, The* (Savage), 80–81
- Continental Army. See also Militia companies established by Congress, 67
 Battle of Bunker Hill, 68, 70–71
 Dorchester Neck, 78 lack of supplies, 85
 weaknesses of, 86, 93–94
 Battle of Bennington, 94–95
 in Yorktown, 104–105
- Continental currency, 86
- Copley, John Singleton Mercy Otis Warren, 43
Paul Revere, 44
 affected by trade regulations, 45